

ಶ್ರೀ ಎಂ. ಚಿಕ್ಕಲಿಂಗಯ್ಯ.—ಪ್ರೈವೇಟ್ ಕಂಪೆನಿಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಈ ಇನ್‌ಸ್ಟ್ರಕ್ಷರುಗಳನ್ನು ನೇಮಕಮಾಡಿರುವುದರಿಂದಲ್ಲವೇ ಜಾಗೃತ ಜಾಗೃತ ಬಿಸಿನೆಸ್ ಡೆವಲಪ್ ಆಗುತ್ತಾ ಇರುವುದು ?

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—That is why the Insurance Committee has made recommendations to this effect.

ಶ್ರೀ ಎಂ. ಚಿಕ್ಕಲಿಂಗಯ್ಯ.—ಇದನ್ನು ಅದಷ್ಟು ಜಾಗೃತಮಾಡಿದರೆ ಬಿಸಿನೆಸ್‌ಗೆ ಅನುಕೂಲವಾಗುತ್ತದೆಯಲ್ಲವೇ ?

Mr. SPEAKER.—What is the good of putting such questions? Next question.

ಶ್ರೀ ಎಂ. ಚಿಕ್ಕಲಿಂಗಯ್ಯ.—ಅಕ್ಟೋಬರ್ ನಿಂದಲೇ ಚೆಗೆ ಮೈಸೂರು ನರ್ಕಾರದವರು ಕೊಟ್ಟಿರುವ ಕಾಂಟ್ರಿಬ್ಯೂಷನ್ ಏನಾದರೂ ಇದೆಯೇ ?

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—No, Sir.

ಶ್ರೀ ಬಿ. ಹುಚ್ಚೇಗೌಡ.—ಸ್ವಾಮಿ, ಮದರಾಸು ಸರ್ಕಾರದವರು ಮೈಸೂರು ಸಂಸ್ಥಾನದವರಿಗಿಂತ ಪ್ರಜೆಗಳಿಗೆ ಹೆಚ್ಚು ಫೆಸಿಲಿಟೀಸ್ ಕೊಟ್ಟಿದ್ದಾರಲ್ಲವೇ?

Visit of Sir Mirza M. Ismail to "Vidhana Soudha".

Q.—333. Sri M. V. RAMA RAO (Tumkur).—

Will the Government be pleased to state :—

(a) Whether Sir Mirza M. Ismail was invited by the Chief Minister to inspect the design, lay-out or construction of the new 'Vidhana Soudha' during the year 1953 and if so, on what date or dates;

(b) whether Sir Mirza M. Ismail and the Chief Minister jointly inspected the construction and if so, on what date or dates;

(c) whether any opinion, advice or suggestion relating to the design, lay-out, alignment, construction or cost of the building was either solicited from or expressed by Sir Mirza M. Ismail and if so, the content of it?

A.— Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA (Chief Minister).—

(a) No.

(b) and (c). Do not arise in view of reply to (a) above.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—May I know Sir, whether without any formal invitation, it happened that Sir Mirza and the Chief Minister went and inspected the construction of Vidhana Soudha Building?

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—I suppose none outside Government service can afford to inspect a Government building. Sir Mirza was not invited to give suggestions along the lines made out by the Hon'ble Member. It is true that Sir Mirza came once to my residence and both of us just went round and saw the building under construction.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—Is there any opinion expressed by Sir Mirza that the Chief Minister can disclose to this House?

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—It is all very formal and what is called mere 'talk'. Therefore I do not remember what all was said and discussed. There is no question of official formality being applied to this visit, Sir. It was an informal private visit.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—Did Sir Mirza invite himself for the occasion or did it happen because invitation was extended informally or unofficially as stated by the Chief Minister?

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—No invitation was extended to him to inspect this building. As I have already said, we wanted to go for a drive and we happened to go there and see the building.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—Has there been any correspondence between the Chief Minister and Sir Mirza in the matter of construction of this building?

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—There is no official correspondence.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—Is there any unofficial correspondence which the Chief Minister may disclose in this House?

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—I think it is beyond the scope of this House to probe into private correspondence.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—I am not talking of private correspondence. What I am asking is unofficial correspondence. Shall we take it, Sir, that no opinion with regard to this building has been expressed by Sir Mirza Ismail?

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—I have already answered, Sir.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—Sir, during the inspection informal and unofficial...

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—I do not concede that there was inspection, Sir.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—So, I take it that what was done was mere sight-seeing?

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—He can take it in whatever way he pleases Sir.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—Shall we then take it, Sir, that this is one of those instances in which there is nothing that could be taken as truth unless officially denied?

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—We are here to transact official business, not to discuss private business and correspondence.

12-30 P.M.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—Sir, I have no curiosity to know the private correspondence. I know what it would be like. But I want to elicit answer whether, on the occasion of Sir Mirza's visit to the premises where this building is being constructed, any opinion on design or lay-out of the building was expressed or not?

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—There was no correspondence or suggestion, as I have said.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I would like to point out to the Member and the House that an Hon'ble member is not justified in referring to the subject of conversation the Chief Minister had outside the House. But, he may refer to it in a general way.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—I am not referring to the private conversation nor am I anxious to know it. But, shall we take it that this is an instance of the doctrine that nothing has to be taken as truth unless it is officially contradicted?

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—As I have said, we are here to transact official business and not to discuss personal transactions or personal talks.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I may also make it clear that it is the duty of the Speaker to see that the Ministers will give replies quickly, fully and truly. This is a direction given to us by Hon'ble Sri Mavalankar, the Speaker of the House of the People in the Speakers' Conference. I am carefully watching answers to the best of my capacity.

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—Is it your information that full answers are not provided, Sir?

Mr. SPEAKER.—Questions are being answered properly. If they are not properly answered or if I am not satisfied, I will point out.
